Family Perspective

January 14, 2018

Jesus' question in today's gospel is still valid today: "What are you looking for?" What do you want from your spouse, children or parents? Families are populated with imperfect people. To expect perfection is unreal. To expect and accept imperfection is wisdom.

A Letter from Fr. Samy

Dear Fr. Alphonse Savarimuthu and the parishioners of St. Therese Catholic Church and SS. Cyril and Methodius Catholic Church greetings from Fr. Samy.

I am fine and keeping well. I think of you all the time and your concern and hospitality while I was with you was appreciated. It was God's Grace that I could meet all of you loving people. Some of you had taken me out for meals as gesture of your hospitality.

Fr. Alphonse was a good supporter and helper to me. This year was a great blessing for me because I receive lots of gifts from you like rosaries, Our Lady statues, and the Madonna. Those two parcels were worth much to us and it shows your love for Africa and My mission at Bissil.

I was also honored to receive from you a generous donation of $2,008.00 (From the Mission Appeal through the Diocese of Kalamazoo.) It shows your generosity and sacrifice towards my new mission at Bissil. I used this money meticulously for building a Fransalian Rectory which our provincial Fr. Mathew approved. He thanks you all for the generosity as well.

I remember all of you in my daily prayers. I am also attaching some photos of the Fransalian Rectory's progress. If anybody is willing to support my mission you are most welcome.

With love and prayers,

Fr. Chinnappan Arockiasamy MSFS Arockiam
 (Fr. Samy MSFS)
